FIRST CIRCUIT
1DRC-24-0010852
16-JAN-2025

01:00 PM
Dkt. 6 01

1. Plaintiff tried to resolve this issue without filing this lawsuit for a year, but Defendants responded inappropriately and denied their debt to Plaintiff.

Therefore, Plaintiff had no choice but to file a lawsuit to collect the debt from Defendants.

2. In the past, the defendants lost one big box of international mail to the plaintiff, causing great loss and harassing the plaintiff for several years. In addition to this, the defendant has also caused a lot of damage by not delivering or losing many mails, including letters from government agencies.

3. Plaintiff received the registered mail and green card of the Complaint & Summons (22 persons of Hawaii) of the court on 9/11/2023 through Defendant's post office.

Defendants were required by their rules to deliver the green card to Plaintiff no later than 15 days from the date of mailing. Plaintiff sent 22 registered mail and green cards from Defendant's post office on 9/11/2023. The amount paid by Plaintiff to Defendants at this time was approximately $230. Defendant Post Office was required to deliver the green cards to Plaintiff no later than 9/26/2023, but Defendant finally delivered the green cards to Plaintiff on 10/31/2023.

Defendant urgently and accurately delivered the letter and then neglected to properly perform the delivery certificate (green card), causing Plaintiff loss.

4. More serious is the loss in the following other incidents.

Plaintiff mailed the green cards to Defendant in Las Vegas on 7/12/2024, along with a Complaint & Summons of this court, by registered mail.

5. Thereafter, according to Post Office records, Defendant Post Office delivered Plaintiff's court papers to Defendant on 7/17/2024, as Exhibit A.

However, it is unknown whether the Defendant Post Office did not receive the signature of the Green Card from the Defendants due to negligence or received the signature but lost it, but now, 6 months have passed and the Green Card has not been returned to the Plaintiff.

6. The judge in the case did not acknowledge the service, stating that the evidence in Exhibit A (the record of the Post Office receiving the electronic signature from the Defendants) was insufficient. See Exhibit A

7. After that, the Plaintiff visited the Defendant Post Office (Nua Nu Post Office, Dillingham Post Office) around 8/2024 and asked the supervisor and manager to return the Green Card and find out its whereabouts about 7 times, but they lied and ignored the Plaintiff's requests.

In particular, the postal workers(Part) and their supervisors and managers located in Dillingham Blvd , Honolulu, Hawaii, habitually lied and repeatedly acted irresponsibly due to poor attitudes and human qualities in dealing with customers. (neglect of duty, harassment)

In addition, the supervisors and managers have repeatedly treated non-English speakers with contempt and disregard for several years. (It seemed that their purpose was to harass non-English speakers and make them leave the claim.)

8. The plaintiff had no choice but to invest a large sum of money in the defendants and re-deliver it five times through the Process Server, but the defendants were already aware that the lawsuit had been filed in the Hawaiian court by receiving the Complaint & Summons of this court from the post office on 7/17/2024, so the defendants intentionally remained silent and did not receive the five deliveries.

9. Responsibility of the defendant post office

In conclusion, due to the delivery negligence of the Defendant Post Office, the Plaintiff's trial has been suspended for 6 months due to the Defendants' silent refusal to receive the court's summons while they were at their home.

(1) Due to the defendant post office's negligence (delivery accident), the defendant post office actually obstructed and delayed the court's summons to the defendants (in another case), giving them an opportunity to escape. *Rather, The post office provided the defendants with an excuse (opportunity to escape) to avoid receiving subsequent court documents.

(2) The plaintiff is responsible for compensating for damages resulting from the defendants' negligence, including postage (registration and green card fees), process server fees, public notice fees (future), trial delays, plaintiff's harassment and mental suffering, unnecessary court document preparation and visits, etc.

In conclusion, due to the delivery negligence of the Defendant Post Office, the Plaintiff's trial has been suspended for 6 months due to the Defendants' silent refusal to receive the court's summons while they were at their home.

10. Conclusion

As above, the plaintiff had no choice but to file a lawsuit in court to seek relief for economic and non-economic losses resulting from the defendants' illegal acts.
